Physics 304
Homework due 9 March 2016

5. A symmetrical top moving freely in space is powered by jet engines symmetrically placed with respect to the $x_3$-axis of the body. These supply a constant torque $\tilde{N}_3$ about the symmetry axis. Find the general solution for the angular velocity as a function of time, relative to the body axes.